

1965-66

This year the faculty remained the same with Brother Larry Call as Principal, Ronald Firth as teacher and Roger Connors at the Jr. High Seminary.

Officers for this year were: Kraig Ford--Pres.
Karen Thompson: Sec.
Lyman Carlile: Jr. Councilman
Marsha Webster: Jr. Councilman
Rae Lynn Winterrose: Soph Councilman

Graduation was held in the new Heber 3rd ward chapel. 92 third year students graduated and 62 4th year graduates were presented diplomas.

1966-67

Joseph L. Allen was principal this year having moved from Tropic, Utah. Roger L. Connors moved to the high school and Lynn Green was a new teacher at the Jr. High Seminary.

Student officers for the year were: Richard Tree: Pres.
Linda Kaye Carlile: Sec.
Kathy Emerson: Jr. Councilman
Steve Edwards: Jr. Councilman
Todd Carlile: Sophomore Councilman

Graduation was held at the new Wasatch stake Center with Dale Tingy as the guest speaker. Brother Tingy is the assistant administrator of Seminaries and Institutes. There were 35 fourth year students and 40 third year students graduated.

At the end of the school year it was announced that Brother Allen would be leaving to teach at the B.Y.U. while working on his Master's Degree.

1967-68

To start the year out right, an opening social was held on Sept. 13, at the Seminary building. This was planned by officers:

Mike Knight: Pres.
Elaine Whippy--Senior Rep.
Todd Carlile--Jr. Rep.
Charlene Hull--Soph Rep.
Shirlee Zenger--Sec. Hist.

The faculty for the year consisted of : Roger Conners--Principal, Joel Cowen and Brother Lynn Green at the Junior High Seminary.

Some of the activities for the year included the Thanksgiving essay contest won by Charlene Hull and the Indian gift project.

Graduation took place on May 22 at the Wasatch Stake Center in the form of a nice program centered around the theme "Freely Ye Have Received, Freely Give." Sixty four students received 4th year certificates and 110 third year certificates were awarded.

1968-69

Brother Roger Connors remained as principal this year. However, he was doing some writing in home study for the Dept. and just taught 2 classes at the Seminary. He had an office at the Junior High where he did his writing. Other faculty members for the year were Ed Davis, Joel Cowan, and Dave Ball. Paul Damron was the new teacher at the Junior High Seminary being transferred from Bountiful. He had also spend 3 years in Samoa.

Seminary officers for the year were: Todd Carlile: Pres.
Susan McDonald: Senior Rep.
David Adams: Jr. Rep.
Sheila Probst: Soph. Rep.
Janet Hutchinson: Sec. - Hist.

Todd Carlile also served as president of the North Eastern Seminary District for the year and directed activities there.

The Seminary graduation used the theme "50 years of Challenge" and the Seminary program in Heber was reviewed and past teachers and graduates were honored. 108 students received 3rd year certificates and 78 received 4th year certificates. At the close of the school year, Brother Connors moved to Provo to carry on with his writing for the department.